Spring 2003 -- Volume 6, Number 1

ROLL NAMED CLARKSON HOCKEY COACH

Clarkson announced on March 24 that it has selected George Roll as the new head coach for the men's Division I hockey team. A former assistant coach at Clarkson when the Golden Knights enjoyed some of their greatest success in the early 1990s, Roll comes back to the University after a very successful tenure as the head coach at Oswego State. Roll completed his seven-year stint at Oswego on March 22 when he guided the Great Lakers into the title game of the Division III National Championships, capping off a 25-7-1 season. Roll will begin his transition to Clarkson immediately.

"I am very pleased to welcome George Roll to the Clarkson family," said President Denny Brown. "George is very familiar with the Clarkson hockey program's long history of excellence, and has shown his capability to develop a dynamic program. I know that he will strive to build a well-rounded and competitive team of scholar athletes."

During his eight-year stretch as the Knights' number one assistant under former Clarkson head coach Mark Morris, Roll was instrumental in helping to guide the Green and Gold to some of their most outstanding seasons ever in the early 1990s. He played an important role in bringing to the Northern New York campus some of the most talented players to ever lace up skates for the Knights.

"George is going to bring an unbelievable sense of leadership, presence and winning attitude to Clarkson's hockey program," stated Clarkson Athletic Director Sean T. Frazier. "He is a great organizational coach as well as understanding the needs of Clarkson hockey. He is going to continue the strong tradition that we have of success. George is an excellent role model and is a character person. He will lead by example."

From 1988-1996, with Roll as an assistant coach, Clarkson compiled a 176-82-26 overall record, won 19 ECAC playoff games, earned two conference regular season titles (1991, 1995), claimed two ECAC Tournament titles (1991, 1993) and participated in six NCAA postseason affairs, advancing all the way to the Frozen Four in 1991. The Knights' last NCAA tournament victory came in 1996 (6-1 over Western Michigan in the first round of the NCAA East Regional in Albany), Roll's final season at Clarkson before he left Potsdam for a very impressive career as head coach at Oswego beginning at the start of the 1996-97 campaign.

MEN'S NORDIC SKIERS LEAD CLARKSON TO NATIONAL TITLE

Clarkson's Men's Nordic Ski team enjoyed an outstanding performance at the United States Collegiate Ski Association (UCAA) Nationals by winning its first National Championship, along with the Men's President Award, which is presented to the school with the top combined showing between the alpine and cross-country teams. Clarkson's Women's team finished second at the nationals.

The Golden Knights took top honors in the five-day championship, which took place on March 4-8 in Northstar, California, compiling 21 points. The University of Wyoming placed second with 48 points with the U.S. Air Force Academy in third place with 80 points. The Clarkson women finished in second with 75 points, behind the University of Wyoming, which posted 42 points. The U.S. Military Academy was third for the women with 115 points.

BOATHOUSE SPORTS HELPS CLARKSON CREATE STRONG ATHLETIC BRAND IDENTITY

Boathouse Sports has finalized an exclusive all-school deal with Clarkson University to manufacture the outerwear for all of the school's athletic teams for the next three years, which includes creating a new image for the Golden Knights.

"Outerwear is a reflection of a school's excellence and its commitment to its athletic programs," said Clarkson University Athletic Director Sean T. Frazier. "In a crowded marketplace where schools are competing to recruit athletes, a polished image can give one school the advantage over another school with a comparable athletic program."

Clarkson is part of a growing trend among schools such as Columbia University and Cornell University to bolster its image by working with Boathouse Sports, a Philadelphia-based custom athletic team outerwear manufacturer.

BONDELLIO NAMED VERIZON ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA

Linda Bondellio (Watertown, NY) of the Clarkson University Women's Basketball team has been named to the 2003 Verizon Academic All-American Women's Basketball District I Third-Team for her performance on the court and in the classroom.

Bondellio, a 6-0 senior forward, was selected to the team with a 3.32 GPA in Business and Physical Therapy. She was the only student-athlete on any of the three teams to have accumulated her GPA as a double major.

Bondellio finished the regular season among the leaders in the Upstate Collegiate Athletic Association (UCAA) in scoring, rebounding and free throw percentage.

VANESSA JEFFERY WINS PRESTIGIOUS NCAA POST-GRAD SCHOLARSHIP

Vanessa Jeffery (Canton, NY), a senior women's lacrosse player at Clarkson University, was recently awarded the NCAA Women's Postgraduate Scholarship for Careers in Athletics, becoming one of only 16, and one of only three at the NCAA Division III level, women college graduates to win this scholarship.

Jeffery, a defensive wing who has scored two career goals, is entering her fourth year on the women's lacrosse team and has played in all 34 games for the Golden Knights over the past three years. Thanks to a 3.69 grade-point-average in psychology and physical therapy, she has been named to the Upstate Collegiate Athletic Association (UCAA) All-Academic team twice. She plans on attending the University of Pittsburgh to pursue a master's degree in physical therapy.

Since its inception in 1989, 155 scholarships have been awarded through the NCAA Women's Postgraduate Scholarship for Career in Athletics.

PARKS NAMED KNIGHTS' FULL-TIME WOMEN'S BASKETBALL COACH

After guiding the Clarkson University Women's Basketball team this past season as the interim coach, Ann Parks has assumed the regular head coaching duties for the team. Parks led the Golden Knights to a 12-13 overall mark and 5-9 record in the Upstate Collegiate Athletic Conference (UCAA). It was the team's most successful season since 1994-95. Before taking over as the head coach last September, Parks had served as the Knights' top assistant the previous two years.

"She is going to do a tremendous job and did a great job over her interim appointment," said Clarkson University Athletic Director Sean T. Frazier. "She has proven herself as an assistant and now as a head coach. She is perfect for the job and I am looking for some great things from her in the future."

Parks was a four-year (1995-99) standout at Nazareth College in Rochester. While at Nazareth, Parks played in three NCAA Women's Basketball Tournaments, was a two-time Empire Athletic Association (EAA) All-Star and served as the Golden Flyers team captain in her senior campaign. A native of Plattsburgh, NY, Parks came to Clarkson in 2000 after serving one year as an assistant women's basketball coach at Potsdam State. She also serves as Clarkson's women's tennis coach.

MANDELL NAMED FULL-TIME COACH FOR CLARKSON VOLLEYBALL

After guiding the team to one of its best seasons ever, Laura Mandell has assumed the regular head coaching duties for the Clarkson University Volleyball team. The Golden Knights enjoyed a 19-12 season and a third-place finish in the Upstate Collegiate Athletic Association (UCAA) Championships under Mandell in her first season.

Mandell was given the title of interim head coach in late August when Laura Habacker left for a coaching position at Elms College. The Golden Knights thrived under Mandell, winning 19 times in 31 matches for a .613 winning percentage, the second-highest winning percentage in school history.

A former Golden Knight all-star, Mandell had served as an assistant coach at Clarkson in the 2000 and 2001 seasons. A four-year standout from 1996-1999, Mandell holds numerous volleyball records for the Green and Gold. She set the mark for most kills in a season with 377 in 1997 and also set the record for digs with 459 in 1996. Mandell, a native of Binghamton, NY, is also Clarkson's career leader in kills with 1,129 in 467 games.

BASKETBALL TEAMS GAIN RESPECT in 2002-03

There were many question marks surrounding the Clarkson University Men's Basketball team when the season opened in November and expectations were not as high as in 2001-02. However, the Golden Knights, guided by fourth-year coach Tobin Anderson and assistant Jason Leone, proved that losing the top five scorers from the year before was no reason to panic. Clarkson compiled an 11-14 overall record and 6-8 mark in the Upstate Collegiate Athletic Association (UCAA), vying for a post-season berth on the final day of the regular season, falling just one win short of the UCAA Tournament.

Anderson and Leone were able to redefine the Golden Knights with their varied personnel this season, turning the run-and-gun Knights' of 2001-02 into the defensive stalwarts of the UCAA in 2002-03. Although Clarkson scored 11 points less per game than last year, their defensive effort remained high, holding opponents to a conference-low 65.3 points per game.

Without departed seniors Steve Vega and Ashton Fritz, who averaged a combined 34.5 points per game, junior Josh Harner (Houston, TX) stepped up as a scoring threat for the Golden Knights, averaging over 16 points per contest after scoring just 6.1 points per game in his sophomore season. Harner was greeted with several accolades late in the season, as he was named the UCAA Guard of the Week the final two weeks of the campaign. He posted a career-high 32 points in a 66-65 league win over Hobart and scored 30 points against Skidmore. Harner finished fifth in the UCAA in scoring and was second in the league in 3-point field goals made, finishing with 60 3-pointers in 25 games. His season performance garnered him a spot on the UCAA All-Star Second-Team.

Aiding Harner in the starting backcourt was junior Kevin Williams (Syracuse, NY) and sophomore point guard Matt Decker (Whitney Point, NY). Also providing valuable minutes in the backcourt were sophomore PJ Susice (Massena, NY) and juniors Dan Broderick (Westport, NY) and Eric Wallace (Ilion, NY).

In the frontcourt, captain Steve Godlewski (Rotterdam, NY), the lone Clarkson senior, finished out his Clarkson career by starting 21 of the team's 25 games. Freshman Russ Vitallo (Dracut, MA) came on in the latter portion of the season and made a late-run at UCAA Rookie of the Year. Making solid contributions in their sophomore seasons were Kamal Crues (Rochester, NY) and John Adamchick (Clifton Park, NY).

Unfavorable circumstances surrounded the Clarkson University Women's Basketball team from time to time during the 2002-03 season. With just a little bit of fortune, the Golden Knights could have turned their 12-13 overall record into a 17-8 mark, having lost five games by three points or less, including three on last-second shots. Despite the heroics of other teams, the Golden Knights, guided by first-year head coach Ann Parks and assistant Art Siebert, enjoyed a season that will go down as one of the most remarkable seasons in Clarkson history.

The Golden Knights started the season with a 4-0 record, their best start since the 1989-90 campaign, with wins over Medaille, Hilbert, Plattsburgh and Middlebury. With a tournament championship at the start of 2003 in Baltimore, Clarkson improved to 6-1, but a streak of bad luck hit the Knights as they lost seven of their next nine games, including six single-digit defeats. The Golden Knights finished outside of the Upstate Collegiate Athletic Conference (UCAA) post-season tournament with a 5-9 record.

Senior co-captain Linda Bondellio (Watertown, NY) made her final season at Clarkson a memorable one, finishing with 449 points and an average of 18.0 per game, the highest single-season average in Golden Knights' history. Bondellio came within just 14 points of Melissa Smith's career record of 1,578 points and broke several career marks at Clarkson. Bondellio ended her career with 900 rebounds and 388 free throws made and also set a single-season mark for free throws made (121). Her performance during the season helped her gain UCAA First-Team All-Star accolades.

Senior co-captain Jen Martin (Guildhall, VT) may not have put up the numbers that Bondellio did, but her early-season contributions helped the Golden Knights to their strong start. Martin was among the leaders in the NCAA in free throw percentage throughout most of the season, hitting a high mark of 88.6 percent midway through the year, finishing with a 82.6 percentage which ranked first in the UCAA. She also tied a Clarkson mark with 24 consecutive free throws made.

Senior Natalie Muren (Hempstead, NY) put forth a significant effort in her only season at Clarkson, providing valuable minutes off the bench. Also helping out in the frontcourt were Sarah Guest (Middleburgh, NY), Michelle Pelkey (Schuylerville, NY) and Theresa Creten (Hadley, NY). Junior Bridget Sweeney (Corning, NY) took another step forward this year, starting 25 games and averaging 8.0 points per game. Sophomore Linda Fernandez (Kennebunkport, ME) continued to show promise at point guard. Also helping out in the backcourt this season was freshman Erika Fritjofson (East Barre, VT) and sophomores, Ashley Janisewski (Chateaugay, NY) and Jamie Folsom (Alexandria Bay, NY).

ALUMNI HOCKEY HOMECOMING

On Saturday, November 23, Clarkson welcomed back and paid tribute to three of its most successful teams in Golden Knights Hockey History: 1961-62, 1965-66, and 1969-70, each of which advanced to the NCAA Tournament championship round. Len Ceglarski, the coach who guided each of these teams, was also honored. During the homecoming, the former players received tours of Cheel Arena, including the VanLammers Players Lounge, and the campus. In addition to a recognition dinner and pre-game ceremony, the alumni players enjoyed a reception by the Hockey Boosters after the Knights' game against Bemidji State.

One of the bright spots for the Clarkson Hockey team came on December 14 when the Golden Knights won the inaugural College Hockey Showcase in Ottawa, Ontario. Clarkson, behind the overtime game winner from freshman Jeff Genovy defeated Colgate 2-1 at the Corel Centre. Former Clarkson all-star and current NHL standout Todd White '97 was on hand after the game to present captains Kevin O'Flaherty (#10) and Dave Reid with a trophy. Following the afternoon NCAA contest, White went on to lead his hometown Ottawa Senators to a 4-3 overtime victory over New Jersey. White, who had one goal and one assist in the win, was named the game's Second Star.

LaCHANCE RECEIVES 2002 BARBEN AWARD

During the Hockey Homecoming, former Golden Knight defenseman Wayne LaChance '70 received the Arnold H. Barben Award for 2002. The award recognizes achievement in hockey, commitment to young people, and community service.

A team captain in both his junior and senior years, Wayne was named a second-team ECAC Tournament selection and ECAC All-Star second team. Pursuing a professional career with the Springfield Kings of the American Hockey League, Wayne became a fan favorite and returned to the city following a career-ending injury. Subsequently he coached the junior Mass-Conn Twins and then at American International College. He also became owner manager of the Enfield Twin Rinks and Springfield Olympia. He became more involved with junior hockey, developing players who would join the Springfield Olympics.

In 1994 Wayne formed Pro-Friends, Inc. and became majority owner of the Springfield Falcons of the American Hockey League. Through related charity work and sponsorship of 160 youth hockey teams, he has been recognized for promoting both youth and professional hockey in western Massachusetts.

CLARKSON SWIMMERS ENJOY OUTSTANDING SEASON

The Clarkson University Men's and Women's Swim teams enjoyed another outstanding year with head coach Mick Maguire at the helm. The Golden Knight Men were 4-1 in dual meets in 2002-03, defeating arch-rival St. Lawrence, Potsdam State, Plattsburgh State and Utica. While the Clarkson Women's team didn't have the dual meet victories that the men's team enjoyed, several swimmers did surpass many school records. The women went 2-3 in dual meets, beating Plattsburgh State and Potsdam. The women also placed first at the North Country Invitational. But more important than victories, the Golden Knights bettered their own times, as well as the best times in school history.

Sophomore Dominick Desiderio (Derby, NY) enjoyed an excellent season for Clarkson, winning three races at the North Country Invitational at Potsdam College, and coming in fifth place in the 200-yard butterfly and finishing sixth in the 100-yard butterfly at the Upper New York State Collegiate Swimming Association (UNYSCSA) meet.

Also contributing to the Golden Knights' success were Matt Szarma (Orchard Park, NY), who was particularly dominant in the freestyle events, Tom Willey (Burnt Hills, NY), Kevin Ashcroft (Wolverine Lake, MI) and senior captains Jeff Lia (Auburn, NY), Nate Brown (Cooperstown, NY) and Ed Sayer (Voorheesville, NY).

Senior Sarah Beamish (Pittsford, NY) set an individual mark at Clarkson, finishing the 100-yard breaststroke in 1:13.65. Beamish was also a part of the 200 medley relay team which set a Clarkson standard in 1:56.05. Freshman Sarah Morris (Amherst, NY) was part of two school relay records, helping the 200 medley relay and 200 freestyle relay teams to new standards at Clarkson. Also on the relay teams were Kristine and Veronica Wolak (Rhinebeck, NY). Alyssa Sardinsky (Solon, OH) also swam on the record-setting 200 freestyle relay. Morris and Kristine Wolak also enjoyed good times at the New York State Women's Collegiate Athletic Association Swimming and Diving Championships, with Morris finishing seventh in the 200 backstroke and Wolak coming in eighth in the 100 butterfly.

NORDIC and ALPINE SKIERS DOMINATE USCSA

Junior Ryan Kelly (New Boston, NH) paced the Golden Knights Men's Nordic team to their first USCSA National Championship finishing as the number one overall Nordic skier and gaining first-team USCSA All-America honors. Kelly placed first in the 10km classic (29:19.8), the 15km freestyle (40:42.6) and in the 1km sprint. Kelly also combined with sophomore Mike Otte (Aspen, CO) and freshman Sam Morse (Camden, NY) on Clarkson's winning 3x7.5 km relay team. Morse and Otte also finished second and third, respectively in the Nordic rankings to gain first-team All-America accolades.

Senior Katie Peters (Mayfield, NY) led the Clarkson women at the nationals, finishing fifth in the individual rankings to earn first-team All-America honors. Senior Meg Lyons (Weybridge, VT) and freshman Jessica Snyder (Constable, NY) gained second-team All-America status by placing sixth and ninth, respectively, in the rankings. Snyder was named a first-team USCSA Academic All-American, while Lexi Bohrer (Grantham, NH) gained second-team USCSA Academic All-American honors. Otte was awarded second-team Academic All-American status for the Clarkson men.

Junior Ben Green (Wolfeforo, NH) placed 36th in the slalom and 42nd in the giant slalom to finish as the top skier for the Clarkson University Men's Alpine Ski team at the USCSA National Championships. The Golden Knights placed 13th overall in the standings at the USCSA National Championships, placing 10th in the giant slalom and 18th in the slalom. Junior Josh Edlinger (Margaretville, NY) was the top finisher for Clarkson in the GS, placing 21st. Junior Peter Fuller (Cazenovia, NY) was 28th and Green came in 42nd. Senior Dylan Peck (Cornwall-on-Hudson, NY) was 53rd. Green was the Knights' top skier in the slalom, placing 36th, while Peck came in 45th. Sophomore Greg Gorman (Claremont, NH) rounded out the Golden Knights' scoring in the slalom by coming in 98th.

Although the Clarkson women did not advance to the nationals they did enjoy a strong showing during the regular season. Freshman Ashley Moll (Schuylerville, NY), and sophomores Melissa Monson (Rutland, VT), and Beth Davis (Marshfield, VT) each emerged as the top competitors for the Golden Knights. Senior Kelly Kopicik (Thendarra, NY) closed out her career with Clarkson this winter.

Josh Edlinger

JONES NAMED 1st-TEAM ECAC ALL-STAR

Added another name to Clarkson University's lengthy list of defensemen who have earned Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) All-Star honors. Randy Jones has been named to the first-team of the 2003 ECAC All-Star squad capping off a banner year for the sophomore blueliner. A 6-2, 200-pound native of Quispamsis, New Brunswick, Jones became the first ever Golden Knight defenseman to lead the Green and Gold in scoring. The league's top offensive threat from the blueline, Jones tallied 33 points on 13 goals and 20 assists through 33 games. He also led Clarkson in plus/minus at +12, in power play goals with six and was tied for game-winning goals with three. Jones closed out the 2002-03 campaign with a six-game point-scoring streak (4-3-7). Through 68 career games, Jones has accumulated 22 goals and 31 assists.

UCAA WINTER ALL-ACADEMIC TEAMS

Fifteen Clarkson student-athletes were represented on the 2003 Upstate Collegiate Athletic Association (UCAA) All-Academic Team for the winter season. Student-athletes from the conference schools were selected to the team based on the following criteria: sophomore academic standing, at least a 3.2 grade point average, and on the team roster for the academic year.

A Cheel Arena record crowd of 4,125 turned out on a brisk winter evening to watch one of college's hockey's fiercest rivalries on January 18. The Golden Knights hosted Route 11 neighbor St. Lawrence in one of three games televised live from Cheel by Time Warner Cable in January, but unfortunately for the Green and Gold faithful Clarkson fell to the Saints 3-2.

During the hockey season at Cheel, Clarkson received generous support from sponsors - Seacomm Federal Credit Union, Eben's Hearth Restaurant, Mahoney Auto Mall and Videorama of Potsdam.

The Clarkson Athletic Hall of Fame was established in 1992 to honor and perpetuate the memory of those individuals who, either through participation, support, or interest, have made outstanding contributions to Clarkson Athletics, and who have helped to bring recognition, honor, and distinction to the University. The next group of distinguished members of Clarkson's athletic community will be honored at an induction ceremony scheduled for Fall 2003.

The selection committee is once again asking alumni and the general public for the names of persons who have made outstanding contributions in athletics at Clarkson, including athletes, coaches, staff members, and supporters of the University's athletic programs. Athletes are not eligible until five years after graduation and current coaches are not eligible.

Those making nominations are asked to forward to the committee any available information in support of the submission. Material will be returned to the owner upon request.
