CLARKSON STRIVES for WINS in CENTRAL NY

With a dreadful month of November behind them, the Clarkson University Hockey team is hoping the start of December will bring good cheer to the beleaguered program. The Golden Knights suffered through their worst month of play in recent memory with just a 1-6-1 mark over the previous 30 days. Clarkson enters the final month of 2008 with a 2-7-3 overall record. The Green and Gold are in a four-way tie for ninth place in the ECAC Hockey standings with a 1-5 conference mark.

A lengthy losing skid came to a halt for Clarkson with Saturday's non-league tie against Canisius College, but the Golden Knights, led by senior co-captains Tyrell Mason (Dawson Creek, BC) and Phil Paquet (Quebec City, QUE) will find a daunting challenge in looking to break out of a seven-game winless slide (0-6-1) this weekend. Clarkson, guided by sixth-year head coach George Roll, associate coach Greg Drechsel and assistant coach Jean-Francois Houle, will take to the road to faceoff at Cornell and Colgate. Annually their toughest road trip, the Green and Gold have not swept the Central NY weekend series since the end of the 1996-97 regular season. Clarkson plays the Big Red on Friday at 7:00 p.m. at Lynah Rink in Ithaca, and then battles Colgate at 3:00 p.m. on Saturday in a game to be televised live by Time Warner Sports (channel 26) from Starr Rink in Hamilton.

Clarkson got out of a six-game losing skid with a come-from-behind 2-2 draw against Canisius on Saturday at Cheel Arena after a heart-breaking overtime loss to the Golden Griffins on Friday. Sophomore center Lauri Tuohimaa (Helsinki, Finland) scored off of a tip-in while on the power play late in the third period for his team-high seventh goal of the season to salvage the tie. Freshman Richie LaVeau (Arlington Heights, IL), making his first official collegiate appearance in the Clarkson crease, posted 15 saves. The Knights more than doubled their shots against the Golden Griffins with a 36 to 17 advantage. Clarkson, however, trailed 2-0 early in the second period before senior Shea Guthrie (Carleton Place, ONT) put the Green and Gold on the scoreboard later in the stanza with his first goal of the season. The previous night, Clarkson appeared to be on its way to its first victory since November 7, but Canisius tied the contest with 13.8 seconds remaining in regulation and then became the first Atlantic Hockey team (1-8-0) to ever gain a victory at Cheel by connecting for the game-winner with 74 seconds left in overtime.

Ranked among the top teams in the country, Cornell returns home after splitting a tough non-league series out West this past weekend. On Friday, the Big Red lost for the first time this season, falling to North Dakota in Grand Forks 7-3 on Friday, but came back with a 2-1 victory over the Fighting Sioux on Saturday at Engelstad Arena. Guided by 14th-year head coach Mike Schafer, and associate coach Casey Jones, a former Golden Knight assistant coach, Cornell owns a 5-1-2 overall record and is tied for second place in the league standings with a 4-0-2 ECAC Hockey mark. The Big Red are 2-0-1 at Lynah Rink this season with home wins over Harvard (2-1) and Dartmouth (3-1), and a tie against Colgate (2-2).

After a 3-0 start to the year, Colgate has struggled and takes a seven-game winless stretch (0-5-2) into Friday's game against St. Lawrence. The Raiders, guided by 16th-year head coach Don Vaughan, stand at 4-6-2 overall and are in seventh place in the league with a 1-3-2 conference slate. Colgate also had a lengthy trip out West this past weekend, where it lost at Denver, 6-1, and at Colorado College, 3-2. The Raiders are 2-2-1 at Starr Rink with season-opening wins over Lowell (2-1) and Bentley (4-1). Colgate tied Harvard (2-2) in its last home game on November 22.

3 THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT CLARKSON HOCKEY

- Clarkson owns college hockey's best all-time winning percentage (.642) with an all-time record of 1,285-691-114 since 1920-21.
- The Knights last swept Cornell and Colgate on the road on February 28 and March 1, 1997.
- The Knights have eight players on this year's roster who have been selected in the NHL Draft, but due to injuries have yet to have all eight in the lineup at the same time.

CANISIUS WEEKEND RECAP:

Game #11 (November 28, 2008) - Att: 2,252
Cheel Arena, Potsdam, NY
Final Score: Canisius 4 - Clarkson 3 ot

Seconds away from victory, Clarkson saw it slip away as Canisius tied the contest with 13.8 seconds left in regulation and then gain the win at 3:46 of overtime, becoming the first Atlantic Hockey team to post a triumph at Cheel Arena. The Golden Knights had taken their only lead of the game with a pair of goals 1:50 apart early in the third. Matt Beca scored on the power play 67 seconds into the period, followed by Scott Freeman's tally at 2:57, putting the Green and Gold on top 3-2. Canisius forced the extra session in the final seconds of the third. With their goaltender pulled for the extra skater, the Golden Griffins swarmed the Clarkson net and scored during a scramble in front. The overtime winner was helped by a Canisius dump in deflecting off an officials skate, sending a Golden Griffin in alone on the Knights' net. Clarkson controlled the flow of the play in the first period, but a string of penalties caught up to the Knights when Canisius connected on its third man-advantage opportunity of the stanza to grab the early lead at 16:25. Clarkson tied it up less than three minutes later with a power-play tally from defenseman Bryan Rufenach at 19:13. Canisius took a 2-1 lead in the second period.

Game #12 (November 29, 2008) - Att: 2,487
Cheel Arena, Potsdam, NY
Final Score: CLARKSON 2 - Canisius 2 ot

Lauri Tuohimaa scored on the power play late in the third period to help Clarkson salvage tie with Canisius. The Golden Knights, who trailed 2-0 midway through the second period, scored late in the middle frame and evened the score with Tuohimaa's goal in the third to snap a six-game losing skid. Clarkson out shot the Golden Griffins by over a 2-to-1 margin, 36-17, including a 24-5 advantage over the second and third periods. Both teams had two shots on net in the five-minute extra session. Canisius took a 1-0 first-period lead and made it 2-0 at 9:10 of the middle frame. Clarkson got on the scoreboard with its first second-period goal in nine games with Shea Guthrie connecting at 14:31. Skating on its fourth power play of the contest late in the third, Clarkson wasted little time with the opportunity, taking just 38 seconds in the man advantage to tie the game as Tuohimaa redirected a shot from the point by Julien Cayer at 14:35 for his team-high seventh goal of the year. Richie LaVeau, making his first collegiate appearance, posted 15 saves. The Knights were 1-of-4 on the power play and killed off both of the Golden Griffins man-advantage opportunities.

Head Coach George RollLeonard S. Ceglarski Endowed Chair

In his sixth year as head coach of the Golden Knights, George Roll, along with associate coach Greg Drechsel and assistant coach Jean-Francois Houle, has returned Clarkson Hockey back among the elite programs in the country. During his first five years he has guided the Green and Gold to a 96-80-20 overall record. Roll's overall 12-year collegiate coaching record, which includes seven years at Oswego

State, stands at 215-154-36.

The past two seasons, Clarkson has enjoyed some of the finest success in the program's 86-year history. Last year, the Knights posted 22 victories, won the ECAC RS title and claimed Clarkson's first NCAA Tr. win since 1996. In 2006-07, the Green and Gold posted 25 wins, won the ECAC Tr. championship, and earned the number one seed in the NCAA East Regional.

Roll's recruiting classes, which form the foundation for the Knights' resurgence, have generated 15 NHL Draft picks.

Along with the success on the ice, the Knights have also excelled in the classroom, and play an integral role in the campus and town communities through various works with local charities. During his five-year tenure, Roll has graduated 95 percent of his players. Last year's team maintained a 2.75 GPA.

He has mentored two All-Americans, in Nick Dodge '08 and Grant Clitsome '08, an ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District I two-time honoree (Dodge), numerous ECAC Hockey All-Stars, and close to 20 selections to the ECAC All-Academic team. Four players from Roll's heralded freshman class of 2005 – Clitsome, Dodge, Shawn Weller and Steve Zalewski - signed NHL contracts after completion of their collegiate careers.

Prior to a seven-year stint as head coach at Oswego State (1996-2003), Roll served as an assistant coach at Clarkson for eight years (1988-96) when the Golden Knights enjoyed some of their greatest successes in the early 1990s.

Head Coach at Clarkson (ECACHL)

2007-08: 22-13-4 (15-4-3, 1st), ECAC Quarterfinals, NCAA Tr.

2006-07: 25-9-5 (13-5-4, 2nd), ECAC Tr. Champs, NCAA Tr.

2005-06: 18-17-3 (9-11-2, 8th), ECAC Quarterfinals

2004-05: 13-23-3 (7-13-2, 9th), ECAC Quarterfinals

2003-04: 18-18-5 (8-12-2, 9th), ECAC Tr. (runner-up)

Coaching Experience:

Clarkson Head Coach: 2003-present

Oswego State: Head Coach, 1996-2003

Clarkson: Assistant Coach, 1988-96

BGSU: Graduate Assistant, 1987-88

Coaching Highlights:

Directed Clarkson to the 2008 ECAC RS title and the program's first NCAA Tr. victory since 1996 ... Guided the Knights to 2007 ECAC Tr. championship and Clarkson's first NCAA Tr. appearance since 1999 ... Guided Clarkson to 2004 ECAC Tr. Championship Game ... Led Oswego to 2003 NCAA Division III Championship game ... Named 2003 Division III Coach of the Year ... As an assistant, helped to lead Clarkson to a 176-82-26 overall record, two ECAC regular season titles (1991, 1995), two ECAC Tournament titles (1991, 1993) and six NCAA post-season showings in eight seasons (1988-96).

QUOTES FROM THE COACH:

"Overall, I think the effort was much improved than from the previous weekend," stated George Roll about the games against Canisius. "Friday was a situation where we had the game late, but did not make a proper decision to get the puck deep, and it came back to cost us. Hopefully we will learn from our mistakes. On Saturday, I thought our effort was much better for 65 minutes. We competed at a pretty high level and held a pretty good advantage in the shots. We just couldn't finish. I think it is a matter of us pressing too much, squeezing the sticks and not relaxing around the net. That's what happens when you are in a streak like we are in. We have to continue to build upon our efforts and get to where we want to be."

THE SERIES:

The lone ECAC Hockey team to hold an advantage over Clarkson in its all-time series, Cornell is the Knights' oldest current rival having first played during the 1922-23 campaign with the teams battling to a 0-0 tie in Ithaca. The Big Red leads the rivalry against the Knights 51-49-11. Clarkson, however, is unbeaten in the last three games against Cornell (2-0-1) and took two from the Big Red last year, winning 4-2 at Lynah Rink and 4-1 at Cheel Arena, for its first conference sweep in the rivalry since the 1998-99 campaign. The Knights and Cornell also skated to a 3-3 non-league draw in Florida last season. Clarkson's victory in Ithaca last January 20 was its first win at Lynah since March 6, 1999. Shea Guthrie is Clarkson's leading scorer against Cornell with seven points on two goals and five assists through nine games. George Roll is 5-10-3 against Cornell, while the Big Red's Mike Schafer owns a 23-12-3 record against the Knights.

Clarkson leads the Raiders in their all-time series, which began during the 1927-28 campaign, 80-41-13, but Colgate is coming off two of the biggest wins in the rivalry. The Raiders snapped out of a six-game winless stretch (0-2-4) against the Green and Gold by winning the final two games of the best-of-three ECAC Hockey quarterfinal series in Potsdam last March. After dropping Game 1 of the series 1-0, Colgate rallied back by winning Games 2 (4-3) and 3 (3-2 OT) to advance to the conference championship tournament. The two New York State rivals have battled to four ties over the past five regular-season meetings. In their last two visits to Hamilton, NY, the Knights skated to a 1-1 tie last January and won 2-1 on February 3, 2007. Clarkson is 25-21-4 all-time at Starr Rink. Matt Beca paces the Knights' offense against the Raiders with four assists. George Roll is 5-4-5 against Colgate, while Raiders' head coach Don Vaughan is 11-19-8 in the series.

— KNIGHT NOTES: —

Sophomore Scott Freeman (Whitby, ONT) has tallied at least one point in each of the last four games and leads the Knights in scoring with 13 points, including a team-high 11 assists ... Lauri Tuohimaa has scored a team-high seven goals to go along with three assists ... Sophomore defenseman Bryan Rufenach (Cameron, ONT), who was a healthy scratch against Quinnipiac on November 21, has tallied four points (2-2) in the last three contests. He is Clarkson's leading scorer from the blueline with five points (2-3) in 11 games after recording six points (3-3) in 35 games as a freshman ... Shea Guthrie's first goal of the season, against Canisius in the second period on Saturday, was Clarkson first goal in the middle frame in nine games. The Knights have been out scored 14-7 in the second period, but have finished strong by out scoring the opponents 13-9 in the third ... Playing for the first time in four games due to an injury, freshman Julien Cayer (Longueuil, QUE) recorded two assists over the weekend, including Saturday's game-tying goal ... Freshman goaltender Richie LaVeau made his first official collegiate appearance on Saturday and earned the tie with a 15-save outing ... The Knights' power play is starting to come around with a 3-of-8 effort (37.5%) over the weekend. The Green and Gold scored twice with the man-advantage on Friday, the first time this year they have multiple power-play markers in a game ... Two of junior Matt Beca's (Mississauga, ONT) three goals have come with the man-advantage. The Knights' point leader last season (34), Beca did not have any power-play markers in 2007-08 ... Clarkson's sophomore class has accounted for 58% of the Knights' scoring with 42 points on 15 goals and 27 assists ... The Knights held Canisius to 17 shots on Saturday, the lowest total for a Clarkson opponent this season ... Clarkson's second-leading scorer with 10 points (3-7), sophomore Brandon DeFazio (Oakville, ONT) is the latest Golden Knight to be sidelined with an injury. He suffered an injury in Friday's game and missed the second contest against Canisius. DeFazio will not play against Cornell and Colgate this weekend ... Clarkson has lost players for 24 games due to injuries ... The Knights are looking to break out of their longest winless stretch (0-6-1) since going seven games without a victory early in the 2004-05 campaign. Clarkson went nine games (0-7-2) without a win early in 1999-2000.

NON-CONFERENCE ACTION FEATURED LAST WEEK

ALBANY, NY -- Union was one of two league teams not to suffer a defeat, as it snapped a two-game losing streak by bettering Army Friday, 5-4 and downing Providence Saturday, 4-2. Completing its seven-game homestand, where they posted a 4-3 record, the Dutchmen were led by junior forward Mario Valery-Trabucco who paced the team with four points (1G-3A-4PTS) over the weekend. Sophomore netminder Corey Milan earned both wins over the weekend for the Dutchmen, improving his personal record to 6-4-1 on the season.

In its only game of the holiday week Yale improved its record to 6-2-0 on the season with its seventh consecutive win over rival Brown 4-3 last Tuesday. Junior forward Sean Backman continued to find the back of the net for the Bulldogs, as he netted two goals in a game for the fourth time this season, all Yale wins. Brown, which entered Saturday's game versus UConn with a 5-0-1 all-time against the Huskies, dropped a 4-1 contest against the Huskies.

No. 9/9 Princeton maintained its top ten ranking with a 2-1 record last week. The Tigers won their seventh straight by stopping Quinnipiac 2-1 in league-play, as junior netminder Zane Kalemba made 24 saves. Princeton played in last weekend's Holiday Tournament taking home a third-place finish. Princeton was matched-up against fellow top ten power No. 6/8 Northeastern in the first game of the tournament. The Tigers were led by freshmen Marc Hagel and Derrick Pallis who scored their first career goals in helping the Tigers to a 5-3 win over the Huskies. Princeton's quest for the tournament title fell short Saturday as it rallied from a 4-0 deficit to tie the game at four with two minutes remaining, but Mercyhurst struck for two more goals in the third period to down the Tigers 6-4 in the tournament final. The loss snapped Princeton's eight game winning streak.

The host of the holiday tournament, Rensselaer, dropped both contests over the weekend. Sophomore forward Tyler Helfrich's netted his third goal of the season in Friday's 4-1 loss to Mercyhurst. RPI put offensive pressure on the Lakers throughout the evening mustering 40 shots on goals. Senior captain scored a shorthanded marker the following evening in a 5-1 defeat at the hands of Northeastern.

St. Lawrence took to the road last weekend earning a weekend split by defeating UMass by a count of 4-3 Friday and falling to No. 5/7 Boston University Saturday, 4-1. Senior defenseman Zach Miskovic scored two goals and rookie goaltender Robby Moss came away with his first collegiate win in his first collegiate start in the win over UMass. Junior forward Mike McKenzie had the lone goal in the loss to the Terriers.

No. 16 Dartmouth also earned a weekend split against non-conference opponents. The Big Green handled Providence Friday, 4-2 behind sophomore forward Adam Estoclet, who had scored a goal and an assist. The Big Green lost a tough battle the following day, as it dropped a 2-1 overtime decision to No. 2/3 Boston College. Freshman goalie Jody O'Neil stopped 38 shots in the loss.

The Golden Knights outshot Canisius by a count of 61 to 41 in their two games last weekend, but only came away with one point. Clarkson let Friday's game slip away dropping a 4-3 overtime contest. Sophomore center Lauri Tuohimaa scored on the power play late in the third period to help the Clarkson salvage a 2-2 tie versus visiting Canisius the following evening.

Colgate dropped a pair of non-league contests in its trip out west, falling to No. 7/8 Denver by a count of 6-1 Friday and to No. 5/6 Colorado College, 3-2 Saturday. Colgate returns to action Friday evening as it hosts St. Lawrence at 7 p.m.

No. 13/13 Cornell split a two-game set at North Dakota last weekend. After suffering its first defeat of the season last Friday, 7-3 Cornell rebounded Saturday in a big way getting a goal from junior forward Colin Greening with just over three minutes to play to give the Big Red a 2-1 victory.

Harvard fell victim to a six-minute flurry, which netted No. 2/3 Boston College three goals, it dropped its only game of the week 5-1 to its crosstown rivals. Freshman netminder Matt Hoyle made 31 saves for the Crimson in the loss.

BROWN • CLARKSON • COLGATE • CORNELL • DARTMOUTH • HARVARD
PRINCETON • QUINNIPIAC • RENSSELAER • ST. LAWRENCE • UNION • YALE

Brown: Junior Aaron Volpatti scored his first career short-handed goal Tuesday night against Yale. It was also his first goal in 13 games, since scoring against St. Lawrence on February 16, 2008 ... Senior Matt Vokes had a goal and an assist Tuesday night against Yale, posting his eighth career two-point game. With 8 points (2g, 6a) on the season, he has now surpassed his season total from a year ago by 2 points ... Freshman Mike Clemente made his first career start in net Saturday against UConn and recorded 24 saves ... Freshman Mike Griffin picked up his first career point with an assist on Aaron Volpatti's goal against UConn Saturday.

Clarkson: Clarkson snapped out of a six-game losing skid with a come-from-behind 2-2 tie against Canisius on Saturday. On Friday, the Knights suffered a 4-3 overtime loss as the Golden Griffins tied the game with 13.8 seconds left in regulation, and then tallied the winner in the extra session ... The Knights, who are looking to break out of their longest winless stretch (0-6-1) since going seven games without a victory early in the 2004-05 campaign, play at Cornell and Colgate this weekend. The last time the Green and Gold swept the road trip in Central NY was at the end of the 1996-97 campaign ... Sophomore defenseman Bryan Rufenach, who was a healthy scratch against Quinnipiac on November 21, has tallied four points (2-2) in the last three games. He is Clarkson's leading scorer from the blueline with five points (2-3) in 11 games after recording six points (3-3) in 35 games as a freshman ... Shea Guthrie's first goal of the season in the second period on Saturday against Canisius was Clarkson first goal in the middle frame in nine games ... Freshman goaltender Richie LaVeau made his first collegiate appearance on Saturday and earned the tie with a 15-save outing ... The Knights' power play is starting to come around with a 3-of-8 effort (37.5%) over the weekend ... Clarkson's second-leading scorer, sophomore Brandon DeFazio is the latest Golden Knight to be sidelined with an injury. He suffered an injury in Friday's game and missed the second contest against Canisius. DeFazio will unlikely play against Cornell and Colgate this weekend.

Colgate: The Raiders slipped to 0-10-3 in its last 13 meetings against WCHA opponents ... Austin Smith netted his first collegiate shorthanded goal of the year and second of the season for the Raiders in the loss at CC. Colgate outshot the Tigers 26-25 and held the third ranked team to only three shots in the first period ... Alex Evin made his second career start in net against Colorado College after entering the game in the first period of the loss at Denver. The freshman saved 22 of 25 shots versus the Tigers. The night before, Evin turned aside 22 of 24 shots in 44:09 of work. Both serve as season-highs.

Cornell: How rare was Cornell's allowing seven goals to North Dakota on Friday night? The Big Red last gave up seven goals in a game on Feb. 26, 1999, allowing seven goals in a 7-5 loss to Rensselaer ... North Dakota's Matt Frattin scored a hat trick against the Big Red Friday night, the first three-goal performance allowed by Cornell since Ohio State's Hugo Boisvert struck for three goals on Jan. 15, 1999 - a span of 328 games ... All 23 players who made the trip to North Dakota saw playing time on the weekend, including the collegiate debuts of freshman goaltender Mike Garman and freshman defenseman Sean Whitney. Garman came on in relief of Ben Scrivens in Friday night's loss to the Sioux, while Whitney made his debut in Saturday night's 2-1 win over North Dakota.

Dartmouth: Dartmouth is now off until coming back to host its own tournament December 28 and 29 in Thompson Arena. The Big Green will welcome Army, UMass and Bemidji State to Hanover ... Sophomore forward Adam Estoclet (5-10-15) and freshman forward Doug Jones (2-9-11) are currently in the top five among the leaders in overall scoring among ECCA Hockey players.

Harvard: Harvard ranks 12th nationally in scoring defense (2.10 goals allowed per game) ... Following a four-game road swing, the Crimson returns home to host North Dakota this weekend. Harvard is 4-0-0 at home and has allowed a total of three goals

... The Crimson has scored first in seven of its 10 games and is 4-2-1 in those games ... Harvard is 4-0-1 when leading or tied after two periods ... Alex Killorn has registered a point in five straight games (1-4-5). He leads the Crimson in scoring (2-6-8) and assists and ranks 16th nationally among freshmen in points per game (0.80) ... Nick Coskren leads Harvard with four goals, matching his previous career-high output for a season in this year's first five games.

Princeton: Junior netminder Zane Kalemba is third in the country with a 9-1 record among goaltenders ... The Tigers are ranked fourth in the nation in scoring defense only yielding 1.64 goals per contest ... Princeton is second in the country with a .818 win percentage - 9-2-0 ... The Tigers are seventh in the nation in scoring margin with a 1.36 rating.

Quinnipiac: Senior forward Bryan Leitch leads the nation in assists per game with a 1.25A/GM mark ... Netminder Nick Pisellini is third in the nation with a 1.36 GAA ... Senior forward David Marshall is second in the nation with three game-winning goals this season.

Rensselaer: After hosting the 58th Annual Rensselaer Holiday Tournament this weekend, the Engineers are on the road for their next eight games, including four league games and trips to Miami and Denver ... RPI's next games at the Houston Field House are January 16-17 vs. Colgate and Cornell, respectively ... Junior defenseman Peter Merth missed the first game of his career on Saturday against Northeastern ... RPI and Mercyhurst were assessed a combined 169 penalty minutes Friday night, including 89 to the Engineers ... 122 of those minutes came with 1:29 remaining in the third period ... Rensselaer has scored a single goal in four straight games and seven times overall.

St. Lawrence: The Saints head into the resumption of ECAC Hockey play having snapped a five-game winless streak with their 4-3 win at Massachusetts Friday night. Their split with UMass and Boston University gives the Saints a 4-3-0 record in non-conference games including a 2-1-0 mark against Hockey east teams ... The Saints play at Colgate and Cornell this weekend and will be without captain Jared Ross and could be minus Brock McBride and Aaron Bogosian, three key regulars. Ross will be away until after the Christmas break as he spends time with his family following the death of his brother due to cancer ... McBride injured his ankle against UMass and Bogosian injured a shoulder in practice ... The Saints and Colgate are very familiar foes having played ten times in the last two seasons and 28 times since 1999-2000 ... SLU will be looking for its first regular season win at Colgate's Starr Rink since January of 2001, although the Saints have playoff wins at Starr both last season and in 2004 and 2003 ... Colgate has an 11-15-2 lead in that 28-game stretch with seven of the 11 Saint wins coming in Appleton Arena. The Saints and Cornell have played the normal 16 times since 1999-2000 and the Saints are 5-9-2 in those games with their last win at Lynah rink coming in 2007.

Union: The Dutchmen welcomed two non-conference foes to Messa Rink during the weekend and produced two victories. Freshman forward Kelly Zajac produced a buzzer beater to lift Union to a 5-4 victory against Army and junior forward Jason Walters tallied two assists to lead the Dutchmen to a 4-2 victory against Providence. Union was the only ECCA Hockey school to earn a victory on Saturday ... Junior forward Mario Valery-Trabucho led all scorers with four points, including a career-high three assists against Army. Valery-Trabucho is now on a three game scoring streak, while Walters' three points puts him on a five game point streak ... Sophomore goaltender Corey Milan registered both wins, combining for 32 saves and a .914 save percentage.

Yale: The Bulldogs are eighth in the nation in scoring defense giving up 1.88 goals per game ... Yale ranks 12th in the country in scoring offense netting 3.25 goals per contest ... Senior goaltender Alec Richards is first in the country with a 1.000 winning percentage (5-0-0) ... Junior forward Sean Backman ranks first in the nation with a 1.00 goals per game output and is fourth in the country with five power play goals on the season.

HONOR ROLL

Brown - Aaron Volpatti, Junior, Forward, Revelstoke, BC - Volpatti scored two goals this week, netting his first two of the season. He scored a short-handed goal against Yale Tuesday night, his first career short-handed goal, to tie the game at 3-3, and then added his second in as many games Saturday against Uconn.

Colgate - Alex Evin, Freshman, Goaltender, Castlegar, B.C. - Evin saved 44 of 49 shots (.898 save percentage) in back to back appearances versus ninth-ranked Denver and third-ranked Colorado College. Entered game in relief of Charles Long in the opening period against the Pioneers and made 22 saves in 44:09 of action. Made his second career start the following evening and turned aside 22 of 25 shots against Colorado College. Both serve as career-high save totals. Stopped a breakaway attempt by All-American Chad Rau in the second period.

Cornell - Colin Greening, Junior, Forward, St. John's, Newfoundland - Greening scored a pair of goals, including Saturday night's power-play game winner, as Cornell gained a split in a non-conference series at North Dakota over the weekend. Greening scored his third goal of the season in Friday night's 7-3 loss, then tallied the game-winner with 3:23 left in the game Saturday's 2-1 win over the Fighting Sioux.

Greening leads the Big Red in goals (4) and points (7) and is tied for team-high honors in power-play goals (2).

Locke Jillson, Freshman, Forward, Dallas, Texas - Jillson scored his first career goal in Friday night's 7-3 loss at North Dakota. The Dallas, Texas, native opened the scoring with a first-period backhand shot to the near post. Jillson remains the only Cornell freshman to have scored a point this season and has one point and two assists for three points.

Dartmouth - Doug Jones, Freshman, Forward, Marietta, GA - Jones has found his goal scoring touch as the rookie potted his second of the season against Boston College in Dartmouth's second matchup of the weekend against Hockey East foes. Jones is second on the team in assists with nine and has scored 11 points this season. He recorded a multiple-point game against Providence with two assists.

Princeton - Matt Godlewski, Sophomore., Defenseman, Elk River, Minn. - Godlewski had points in all the games for Princeton as the Tigers went 2-1-0 during the week. Assisted on Kevin Kaiser's game-winner Wednesday in a 2-1 win over Quinnipiac. Assisted on Brandan Kushniruk's goal that gave Princeton the lead for good in a 5-3 win over Northeastern. Scored Princeton's second goal as the Tigers rallied late in a loss to Mercyhurst. Now tied for team lead with eight points.

St. Lawrence - Zach Miskovic, Sr., Defenseman, River Forest, IL - Miskovic had his second two-goal game of the season and the fourth of his career in a 4-3 win at UMass Friday. He also had four of SLU's 27 blocked shots in the game and added another two in a 4-1 loss at 8th-ranked BU Saturday.

Union - Kelly Zajac, Freshman, Forward, Winnipeg, Mann. - Zajac produced a goal and an assist during the weekend, helping Union to a pair of wins. He registered both points in Friday's 5-4 victory against Army. He registered an assist on Union's first goal and then tallied his biggest goal in his young college career. With time running down and the game knotted at 4-4, Zajac fired a shot from just about the goal line in the right corner that beat Amy's goaltender as time expired, giving Union the win. Zajac leads all Union freshmen with five points.

Yale - Sean Backman, Junior Forward, Cos Cob, CT - Backman netted two goals at Brown Tuesday evening to give the Bulldogs a 4-3 league-win. Both goals were of the power play variety.
