2003-04 SEASON in REVIEW

Sixteen victories highlighted a highly impressive debut season for the Clarkson University Women's Hockey team. Playing in their inaugural campaign as a Division I Independent, the Golden Knights, guided by head coach Rick Seeley and assistant coaches Ted Wisner and Shannon Smith, posted a 16-11-3 record this winter against a schedule featuring a mix of established Division I teams and some of the top Division III programs in the country.

Laying the foundation for a promising future, Clarkson skated a very young line up, featuring 20 freshmen on the 22-women roster. The Knights, who will join the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) next season, dominated their Division III opponents this winter and were competitive against every one of their Division I foes.

The Green and Gold went undefeated against Division III competition with an 8-0-1 mark, including a sweep of defending Division III national Champion Elmira (2-1, 3-0) on the Soaring Eagles' home ice in Late October and early November. Clarkson also knocked off the third, fourth and fifth-ranked Division III teams in the country, defeating SUNY power Plattsburgh (4-1, 2-1) in a home-and-home series late in the season, handing Middlebury one of its four losses during the regular season, a 6-2 pounding on the Panthers home-ice in Vermont on January 23, and edging NESCAC Champion Bowdoin (2-1) at Cheel Arena on December 7.

Clarkson also posted a successful 4-3-2 mark against several future ECAC teams. The Knights opened the home portion of its schedule in late October by earning a 1-1 tie and a 1-0 shutout over Vermont in weekend action at Cheel. The Green and Gold also upended Cornell in Potsdam, 2-1, on November 8 and swept Union, 4-0, 5-1, in Schenectady in early January.

Other impressive wins against Division I foes, included a 2-1 victory at 2002 NCAA Frozen Four participant Niagara University on October 18, along with triumphs over Wayne State (3-0) and Sacred Heart (3-0, 11-0).

Final Score: Bluewater Jr. 6 - Clarkson 1

After a 20-year absence, varsity Women's Hockey action returns to Clarkson as the Golden Knights open their inaugural campaign as a Division I Independent with an exhibition contest. Clarkson battles Bluewater, a top junior team from Canada, to a scoreless tie through the first two periods before the Hawks, who enter the game with a 9-1 record, break the game open in the final 20 minutes. Captain Kate Allgood scores the first goal for Clarkson Women's Hockey. Emma Madigan and defenseman Lauren Lubrano earn assists.

Game #17 (January 3, 2004) - Att: 118
Clauss Ice Arena, Findlay, OH
Final Score: CLARKSON 2 - Findlay 2

Kira McDonald makes a career-high 50 saves, including 23 in the third period and three more in overtime, and Kate Allgood scores both goals as the Knights gain a hard earned tie on the road. Allgood tallies her fourth goal of the season, a power-play marker to start the scoring at the 8:14 of the first period and then adds her second goal of the game, and fifth of the season, at the 12:39 of the middle frame to lead Clarkson to a 2-0 advantage. Ashley Shaidle assists on both goals. Findlay's strong attack at the net, which saw them enjoy a 26-9 lead in shots in the first two periods, comes through at 14:26 and 17:07 of the second period to tie the score 2-2. The Golden Knights trail 52-15 in shots, but are able to come away with their third tie of the season.
