

Lindsay Williams serves as Clarkson's captain for the third consecutive year in 2005-06.

2005-06 SEASON in REVIEW

With a couple of favorable bounces of the puck in late February and early March, a very good season for the Clarkson Women's Hockey team could have turned into an amazing run for the emerging Division I team.

In only its third year as an NCAA program, Clarkson, guided by head coach Rick Seeley and assistant coaches Shannon Smith and Laura Hays, made great strides in establishing itself as one of the premier teams in the nation during the 2005-06 campaign.

Ranked among the Top 10 teams in the country throughout the majority of the season, Clarkson skated to a 22-14-1 overall record and finished in a three-way tie for third place in the ECACHL with a 12-8 conference mark. The Knights came within a second of clinching a coveted home-ice berth in the playoffs before Harvard rallied back to edged the Green and Gold 3-2 in overtime at Cheel Arena in the final game of the regular season on February 25.

Clarkson faced off again against the Crimson the following week in Cambridge, Mass. during the first round of the league playoffs and took the eventual ECACHL Tournament Champions to the limit. After falling 1-0 in game 1 of the best-of-three game series, Clarkson downed Harvard 2-1 in overtime in game 2 before the Crimson once again edged the Knights, 2-1 in double overtime of the deciding third game on March 5.

Juniors, captain Lindsay Williams and assistant captains Christine Bailkowski, Emma Madigan and Ashley Shaidle led a young Clarkson squad, without any seniors on the roster, which gained the respect from every team it faced for its disciplined, hard-working style of play.

The first ever all-star for Clarkson, Kira Hurley backboned the Knights in goal during their breakout season and earned numerous accolades in the process, including second-team All-America and the ECACHL Goaltender of the Year. Hurley anchored one of the stingiest defenses in the country and posted an NCAA-high 10 shutouts. She boasted a .937 save percentage and a 1.29 goals against average en route to a 21-12-1 record.

Game #1 (October 7, 2005) - Att: 75
Gutterson Fieldhouse, Burlington, VT
Final Score: CLARKSON 3 - Vermont 1

Jessica Cloutier scored twice in the season-debut as the Golden Knights beat former ECACHL foe Vermont 3-1 on the road to start their third season. The Catamounts enjoyed a 1-0 lead for the first time in the past four meetings against Clarkson with the first goal of the game at 14:44 of the opening period. The advantage was shortlived, however, as Cloutier scored the fifth goal of her career with an unassisted marker at 16:23 in the first period. Clarkson began to take control in the second period with a 12-9 advantage in shots, leading to what would prove to be the game-winning goal from Melissa Marshall at 12:30 of the period. Meghan Park assisted on the game-winning goal. The Knights added a third goal in the final period with Cloutier scoring her second goal at 13:42, a power-play marker, with the assist going to Katie Morrison. Kira Hurley made 25 saves.

Final Score: Mercyhurst 2 - Clarkson 1

With two goals in a span of just 2:36, Mercyhurst College ended Clarkson's modest two-game winning streak to open the season as the Golden Knights dropped their home-opener to the eighth-ranked Lakers at Cheel Arena. After a scoreless first period, Clarkson struck first as freshman Marie-Jo Gaudet tallied her first collegiate goal, unassisted at 2:38 of the middle frame. Clarkson held the lead for the next 11 minutes before a penalty ended the Knights' advantage. The Lakers scored one minute into their power-play to tie the game at 13:10. Mercyhurst didn't wait much longer as the Lakers scored their second goal just two and a half minutes later at 15:56. Kira Hurley finished with 27 saves for Clarkson.

Final Score: Mercyhurst 6 - Clarkson 0

After proving a worthy adversary in a one-goal game on Friday, Clarkson struggled against eighth-ranked Mercyhurst in game two of their weekend series on Saturday. The Lakers jumped on Clarkson early with a 12-1 shot advantage through the first 20 minutes with three of those on-goal attempts making it past Knights' goaltender Kira Hurley. A goalie change by Clarkson after the first period did little to end the Lakers dominance as they out shot the Knights 11-4 in the second stanza and 11-3 in the third period while putting three more goals on the scoreboard. Hurley made nine saves in the opening 20 minutes and Stephanie Hansen closed out the final two periods by making 19 saves and allowing three goals.

Although Clarkson came up short in its bid to upset St. Lawrence, the Golden Knights certainly showed they could skate with the number-one ranked team in the nation before a record crowd of 2,136 in Canton. The Knights, who already knocked off three Top 10 ranked teams, looked to be on their way to another win over a nationally-rated foe when they jumped out to a 1-0 lead against the Saints. St. Lawrence, however, which boasted the second best power play in Division I, answered back with three straight goals, including two with the man advantage to remain unbeaten. Emma Madigan put an early scare into the Saints giving Clarkson a 1-0 first period lead when she poked in a loose puck during a scramble at the top of the crease at 8:27 for her second goal of the year. SLU picked up its pace in the middle stanza and scored on the power play at 8:48. The Saints pulled away in the third with two more goals. Clarkson out shot St. Lawrence 9-7 through the opening 20 minutes, but the Saints ended the game with a 20-14 shot advantage.

Another strong effort in goal by Kira Hurley and an opportunistic offense helped to lift Clarkson to the biggest victory in the program's brief history as the Golden Knights shut out number-one ranked St. Lawrence before a Cheel Arena record crowd of close to 2,000. Hurley posted a season-high 34 saves and Jessica Cloutier and Ashley Shaidle tallied first period goals as the Knights handed the Saints their first loss of the season. Cloutier finished off a centering pass in the slot from Brooke Beazer at 3:25 on Clarkson's first shot of the game. With just 54 seconds remaining in the opening frame, Shaidle netted a power-play goal in front off a pass from the side of the net from captain Lindsay Williams. The Knights, who were out shot 34-8, held SLU's number-two ranked power play off the scoreboard by killing off all five Saints' man-advantage opportunities, while scoring one in six chances against SLU's number-two ranked penalty-killing unit.

Final Score: Niagara 4 - Clarkson 1

A week after surprising top-ranked St. Lawrence, Clarkson was returned the favor by Niagara University as the Purple Eagles handed the Knights a non-conference loss on a Friday afternoon game in Western, NY. Clarkson enjoyed a steady advantage everywhere but the scoreboard, out shooting Niagara 39-17, including a 10-2 margin in the opening stanza, but saw the score tied 1-1 at the end of 20 minutes. The Purple Eagles scored at 5:30, but Ashley Shaidle tied the score at 11:25 in the first with her eighth goal of the year. Micheleen Devine and Sophie Doyon each assisted on the Knights' lone goal. Niagara took the lead with two quick goals to open the period for a 3-1 margin 38 seconds into the middle frame. The Purple Eagles iced the victory with an empty-net tally with 12 seconds left in the game. Kira Hurley made one save through the first 20:22 for Clarkson before being replaced by Stephanie Hansen, who made 12 saves over 38 minutes before being pulled for the extra attacker late in the game. Clarkson committed just one penalty and killed the Niagara extra-man opportunity, but was held scoreless in five power play opportunities throughout the contest.

Game #36 (March 4, 2006) - Att: 614
Bright Hockey Center, Cambridge, MA
ECACHL Playoffs - 1/4 Finals - Game 2
Final Score: CLARKSON 2 - Harvard 1 ot

Katie Morrison tallied the game-winner with just 23 seconds left in overtime Clarkson evened up its ECACHL First Round series. Morrison's tally came at the end of a swiftly played extra session that had the Crimson out shooting the Knights 12-8. Marie-Jo Gaudet and Amanda Dittmer each earned assists on the goal. Clarkson scored the first goal of the game midway through the second period at 10:16 when Michelleen Devine scored her 12th goal of the season. Ashley Shaidle and Brooke Beazer set up the goal. In the third period, it appeared as if the Knights were going to even the series without any extra time necessary, but the Crimson came through with the game-tying marker at 17:30. Kira Hurley stopped 33 shots to earn the victory for the Knights. Clarkson held a slim 35-34 shot advantage in the game.

Game #36 (March 5, 2006) - Att: 624
Bright Hockey Center, Cambridge, MA
ECACHL Playoffs - 1/4 Finals - Game 3
Final Score: Harvard 2 - Clarkson 1 2ot

Four minutes, 22 seconds in to a second overtime period, Clarkson saw its season end as the fifth-seeded Golden Knights dropped a heartbreaker to fourth-seeded Harvard in the final game of the best-of-three ECACHL quarterfinals series. The Knights finished the season with a 22-14-1 overall mark with their second overtime loss in four games, all against Harvard, dating back to the final game of the regular season. The game-winner for the Crimson came after two scoreless frames, including the first overtime period, at 4:22 in the second extra session. Clarkson got on the scoreboard first as Marie-Jo Gaudet scored her ninth goal of the season midway through the first period on the third shot of the game. Gaudet's goal, which was assisted by Christine Bailkowski, came at the 9:09 mark. After a fairly even first period, Harvard dominated the play with a 12-5 shot advantage in the second period, culminating in the game-tying goal at 18:36 of the middle frame. The Crimson continued to carry play with a 26-9 shot advantage through the third period and the first overtime, before things evened up in the first four minutes of the second overtime with both teams trying to finish the score. Harvard's final shot was the difference in the period as the Crimson out shot Clarkson 6-5 in the second overtime and 53-26 overall. Kira Hurley set a new career-high for saves in a game with 51, surpassing the 50 shots she stopped against Findlay on January 3, 2004.
